

EMA PARTNERS INTERNATIONAL EXPANDS IN CANADA

December 15, 2008, for immediate release

A new office has been added in Montreal to extend the global reach of EMA Partners International, the retained executive search firm.

At the recent Partners meeting in Chicago, EMA welcomed a new partner in Canada to its Americas region. “We’re delighted to welcome Jean Raymond and his team. They bring a wealth of experience in the executive search industry” said Bill Yacullo, Chairman of EMA Partners International. “We look forward to leveraging their expertise in Quebec and across Canada for the benefit of our global clients” he added.

“We’re already working closely with our colleagues in Toronto and the US to better serve our clients” said Jean Raymond, Managing Partner in Montreal

“We’re able to meet client needs in Quebec and across Canada, and look forward to working closely with EMA Partners offices globally, as well as the Americas” he added.
