

EMA PARTNERS INTERNATIONAL ADDS FOUR NEW OFFICES

November 5, 2007, for immediate release

Four new offices have been added in Prague, Oslo, Kuala Lumpur & Reykjavik to extend the global reach of EMA Partners International, the retained executive search firm. At the recent Global Partners meeting in Barcelona, Spain, EMA welcomed four new partners to their EMEA and Asia/Pacific regions “Client needs in the Czech Republic, Iceland, Malaysia and Slovakia can now be better addressed” said Bill Yacullo, Chairman of EMA Partners International.

EMA Partners Czech & Slovak Republics, through its predecessor firm, has been active in those markets for several years. “These economies have experienced rapid growth both internally and through inward investment” said Andrea Colantoni. “We’re delighted to join this level of activity with a global firm of EMA Partners’ quality and stature” added Rick Kovar, his co-partner.

In Iceland, Hagvangur has been a leading executive search firm for over 30 years, including some time as an affiliate of Price Waterhouse Coopers. “We’re looking forward to better supporting the needs of our growing client base that invests outside Iceland” said Thorir Thorvardarson. “We’re very pleased to have a global reach that matches those of our clients” added Katrin Oladottir, his co-partner.

EMA Partners Malaysia is a growing executive search practice that is now a stand-alone operation. “Our practice in Malaysia has grown rapidly with both inward and outward foreign investment in energy, manufacturing and other sectors” said Wei Lee Cheong, its Managing Partner “We’re very excited at being able to support and grow our business relationships through EMA Partners International”

In Norway, Capita has been a leading executive search firm for over 10 years. “Our client base includes both local and multinational companies, so we’re delighted to combine our knowledge with that of our new colleagues” said Ola Thomas Morin. “We’re looking forward to working closely with EMA Partners offices globally, as well as across the Nordic countries” added Philippe Caille’, his co-partner.

About EMA Partners International

EMA Partners International (www.ema-partners.com) is one of the world’s largest retained executive search firms with 50 offices in six continents. EMA conducts local, regional and global executive search assignments for top corporations around the world.

Contact: K.Sudarshan

Vice President – Marketing & Communications

EMA Partners International Ltd.

E mail: k.sudarshan@ema-partners.com

Office: +91 22 66310924/66350689

www.ema-partners.com