

EMA PARTNERS INTERNATIONAL EXPANDS INTO BULGARIA

January 27, 2009, for immediate release

A new office has been added in Sofia to extend the global reach of EMA Partners International, the retained executive search firm.

At the recent Partners meeting in Chicago, EMA welcomed a new partner in Bulgaria to its Europe, Middle East and Africa region. "We're delighted to welcome Irina Ivanova and her team. They bring strong experience in the executive search industry" said Bill Yacullo, Chairman of EMA Partners International. "We look forward to leveraging their expertise in Bulgaria for the benefit of our global clients" he added.

"We're already working closely with our colleagues in the Balkans and the EU to better serve our clients" said Irina Ivanova, Managing Partner in Sofia

"We're able to meet client needs in Bulgaria and across the region, and look forward to working closely with EMA Partners offices globally, as well as regionally" she added.
